Jeannette,
Here is a blurb for the Agenda.

The Institute of Museum and Library Services Convening for America250 is for staff of rural and small libraries who work directly with patrons and have responsibilities for programming. It is in celebration of America250 and features 3 days of activities, learning and collaboration. Our Adult Specialist, Alexander Gregory has been invited to attend and has accepted the invitation for the conference in St. Louis, Missouri on October 14-16 with travel days of October 13 and 17th.

IMLS has fully covered conference fees, flights, some meals and hotel for a total value of approximately $2500.
